Event Overview

Two Great Leaders Discuss & Debate Leadership

You don't have to be a soldier or a chief of police to absorb the influence of two of Canada's most dynamic leaders. Be a part of General Rick Hillier's inaugural leadership event as he presents his leadership strategies and experiences and discusses and debates the topic of leadership with Ottawa Police Chief Vern White.

The Hillier Inspiration Series will open each session with a speech from General Rick Hillier, where he will bring his unique viewpoints on Leadership.

On stage, Canada's top soldier displays the full range of his compassion, enthusiasm and leadership acumen, drawing on his unprecedented experiences and sharing the lessons that have made him one of this country's most respected and influential public figures. A leader worth admiring -- and listening to.

His global experience is unparalleled amongst leaders in Canada and will certainly be both informative and entertaining.

Joined by current and relevant leaders from around Canada and the world, Hillier will engage with them in a debate hosted by a respected Canadian to ensure that the tough questions are both asked and answered.
